

DART Reconstruction Worksheet

Organize these paragraphs in the correct order:

Wanda says, "That sounds like a great idea. What should we make?"

"I'm thinking cookies and ice cream." Henry says, looking at Wanda with pleading eyes.

"Sounds good to me!" Wanda replies.

Wanda and Henry are playing in the sandbox when their stomachs begin to rumble like a growling tiger.

"Yikes, we need some lunch!" says Wanda.

"Sorry kids!" Mom yells from her bedroom. "I am in the middle of a very important work call. What do you need?"

Wanda and Henry look at each other. They don't want to disrupt their mom, so they yell back, "Oh nothing! Just wanted to know where you were!"

Henry says, "We can make our own lunch!"

Wanda and Henry run into the kitchen. They pull the chairs from the kitchen table up to the counter so they can reach. Wanda pulls down flour, sugar, chocolate chips, and some icing. Henry grabs the ice cream fixings: sprinkles, fudge, and even some gummy bears.

Wanda pauses and looks at Henry...

"Do you know how to make cookies?" She asks.

Henry responds with confidence, "Of course I do. We just dump some flour, sugar, water, and chocolate chips in a bowl, mix it together, and then put it in the oven! Easy peasy!"

"Come on, Wanda! Let's see what Mom is making us for lunch!"

Wanda and Henry run into the house.

"Mom!" They yell.

They did not hear a response.

"Mom, where are you?"

Answer Key:

Wanda and Henry are playing in the sandbox when their stomachs begin to rumble like a growling tiger.

“Yikes, we need some lunch!” says Wanda.

“Come on, Wanda! Let’s see what Mom is making us for lunch!”

Wanda and Henry run into the house.

“Mom!” They yell.

They did not hear a response.

“Mom, where are you?”

“Sorry kids!” Mom yells from her bedroom. “I am in the middle of a very important work call. What do you need?”

Wanda and Henry look at each other. They don’t want to disrupt their mom, so they yell back, “Oh nothing! Just wanted to know where you were!”

Henry says, “We can make our own lunch!”

Wanda says, “That sounds like a great idea. What should we make?”

“I’m thinking cookies and ice cream.” Henry says, looking at Wanda with pleading eyes.

“Sounds good to me!” Wanda replies.

Wanda and Henry run into the kitchen. They pull the chairs from the kitchen table up to the counter so they can reach. Wanda pulls down flour, sugar, chocolate chips, and some icing. Henry grabs the ice cream fixings: sprinkles, fudge, and even some gummy bears.

Wanda pauses and looks at Henry...

“Do you know how to make cookies?” She asks.

Henry responds with confidence, “Of course I do. We just dump some flour, sugar, water, and chocolate chips in a bowl, mix it together, and then put it in the oven! Easy peasy!”